Psychological Counselling for international students

cips.cvut.cz

What struggles can an international student have?

Living in different culture

Critical moments

- Arrival
 - New environment
 - Different people and language
 - Different weather
 - Less time for your friends and family
- When „the new“ becomes „known“
 - After phase of excitement -> phase of awakening and understanding what's going on
- Arrival back home
 - Your home has changed and you missed it
 - You have changed but your home hasn't
- Preceding issues

Life and study related

- Study / Examination load
 - Different organization of studies, different emphasis
- Works stress
- Preceeding issues

Psychological counselling for international students

Confidential and free of charge

Help through emotional, personal, relationship, or academic situations, such as:

- anxiety, stress
- interpersonal relationships, feeling of isolation, adjustment to a new culture
- making decisions or choices
- sleep troubles, emotional distress, etc.
- Do not wait until the problem has grown serious

Culture

- Who can be your friend?
- How much time should friends spend together?
- How close can you stand to someone?
- How long can you make direct eye contact?
- Should you wait for someone to stop talking before you start talking?
- What is food, what isn't food, and when should you eat it?

- What is polite?
- What is rude?
- What is your responsibility in life, in your community, in your family?

WHAT TO DO ABOUT CULTURE FATIGUE

- Give yourself a break: Sleep, take walks, keep a journal.
- Talk to others: You'll find out you're not alone.
- Find a balance: Like training for a marathon, push yourself while respecting your limits.
- Ask for help: You don't need to do it alone.

When to come?

The map shows the city of Prague with various districts labeled. A blue location pin marks the ESN Point in the Dejvice district, near the intersection of Střešovická and Patockova streets. Other landmarks like the Vltava river, Petřínka viewpoint, and the National Museum are also visible.
